

Team

Mouna Benqlilou (Leadership Role as OCP employee)

After graduating ESTP Paris in 2007, I had an experience in consulting (Cushman and Wakefield Paris) then I integrated ESSEC Business School Paris where I have completed an Advanced Master in Financial Techniques and graduated in the top 5 of the 2009 Cohort.

I spent my career in different financial positions: Proprietary Trader on Inflation Market at Paris (CIC Bank), Head of Front Office in the Financial market structure of OCP SA - Global Leader in Phosphate market (Commodities Market) - and since 2017, in the heart of the financial strategy of the Group OCP as Financing Senior Manager.

I completed my Engineer and Financial educational background by an Executive Master of Business Administration at Africa Business School and Columbia University (2018) (Final project in Entrepreneurship).

I also graduated in 2019 the inaugural Masterclass in Collective Intelligence of the first School of Collective Intelligence at UM6P.

In Parallel, I am passionate about Dance, I have studied different style of dances (from 7 years old) such as Classic, Contemporary, Jazz Moderne, Barre ... I also performed in different Shows and competition in Contemporary Dance.

Recent years, I had the chance to diversify my Dance training and took different Workshops and classes in various Studios (Studio Harmonic Paris, TempsDanse Bouskoura, Studio Vivian and Sandrine Pizzagali, Choreart, Studio 7...).

I integrated Contemporary Companies (Cora Dance Company - L'Hem-Zine Company) and during my Spare Time I teach Classes such as Contemporary Dance, Floor Barre ...

My Value Hierarchy:

